

Kate Comfort

Kate Comfort is Executive Director of the Alexandria-based Comfort Family Foundation (CFF), established to help improve the lives of people in local communities in need. CFF seeks to address intergenerational poverty through education and family support initiatives. Prior to her current role she spent over a decade supporting the federal government in defense and security. After completing her MBA, Kate worked evaluating strategy, policy and organizational risk. She studied and worked overseas in Belgium, China, Egypt, Iraq and Italy. Kate actively volunteers in the community for various local nonprofits. Kate has lived in Alexandria since 2007 where she resides with her husband and three young children.
