

Nadja Rivera

Nadja Rivera is the National Post Closing Manager for Alltech National Title located in the corporate office out of Fairfax, VA. In her current role, Nadja takes charge of National Offices, overseeing all aspects of post-closing and funding processes.

As a local graduate of Marymount University in Arlington, VA, Nadja holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Interior Design. Her career journey took an intriguing turn in 2015 when she transitioned from a successful decade-long stint in Restaurant and Hospitality to the dynamic realm of the Title Industry. Her knack for numbers and meticulous attention to detail complemented her innate creative talents for marketing and design – a perfect recipe for effective branding.

Nadja's innovative approach and commitment to excellence make her an invaluable asset, ensuring the seamless completion of transactions, and enhancing the client experience.

Beyond her professional pursuits, Nadja remains a steadfast advocate for continuous growth and learning. Her versatile background and unwavering dedication have solidified her reputation as a trailblazer in the National Post Closing domain.