

Andrea Waters

Andrea Waters is a dynamic Executive Assistant at Cornerstone Craftsman, driven by a passion for empowering youth to overcome barriers and reshape their futures.

Alongside her role, she serves as the Assistant Director of Recruitment Operations at Georgetown Law, where she has been instrumental in enhancing recruitment strategies since 2009.

A mindfulness facilitator in the Lawyers in Balance program, Andrea equips law students with tools to manage stress and thrive in their studies. She holds a BA in Communications from West Virginia University and a Certificate in Strategy & Performance Management from Georgetown University.

In her free time, she enjoys hula hooping, attending concerts, and creating nail art, all while cherishing moments with her cat, Mona. Andrea is committed to her community through volunteer work focused on environmental initiatives and support for homeless shelters. Her unwavering dedication to youth and community reflects her belief in the transformative power of positive change.
