

Carolina Gil

Carolina Gil is a passionate and accomplished professional hailing from Colombia, where she earned her Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Pontificia Universidad Javeriana Cali. She furthered her education in the United States, achieving a Master's degree in Forensic Psychology from the prestigious George Washington University.

In her current role as a counselor at Shelter Care in Alexandria, Carolina specializes in trauma-informed mentorship and programs tailored for underserved youth and their families. Fluent in both English and Spanish, she creates an inclusive and collaborative environment, engaging families at every stage of their journey. Carolina is dedicated to equipping them with the vital tools and resources necessary for lasting success.

Her unwavering commitment to family engagement, combined with her extensive educational background and hands-on experience, position her to be an exceptional Family Engagement Specialist at Cornerstone Craftsman. Carolina's enthusiasm for empowering families and her bilingual skills make her an invaluable asset to the community, ready to make a meaningful impact.