

Rene Merino

Lead Instructor, Cornerstone Craftsman

With a rich tapestry of over seven years in the construction industry, Rene Merino has painted his mark as a dedicated and skilled professional. As a proud Sherwin-Williams approved contractor, he is not just a craftsman but an artist who pours his heart and expertise into every project. For the past two years, Rene has taken on the inspiring role of Lead Instructor at Cornerstone Craftsman, where he ignites the passion of aspiring craftsmen, guiding them to master their skills with confidence.

At the core of Rene's journey is a steadfast faith that places God at the center of his life and work. This spiritual foundation shapes his unique teaching philosophy, where patience becomes a canvas for growth and understanding. His unwavering love for his craft fuels his commitment to creating transformative learning experiences, ensuring that each lesson resonates deeply with his students.

With a vision to change lives through education, Rene Merino is on a mission to empower the next generation of craftsmen. He equips them with not only technical skills but also a profound sense of purpose and integrity, preparing them to thrive in the industry. In Rene's hands, the future of craftsmanship is not just built; it's elevated.
