

Clark Mercer

Born and raised in Alexandria, Clark is a proud graduate of Alexandria City High School (go Titans!) and a believer and supporter of all youth in our city, having previously served on Alexandria's School Board Budget Advisory Committee and the Parks and Recreation Committee, and having helped coached the Titans soccer team for several years. Formerly the Chief of Staff to the Governor of Virginia, Clark is currently the Executive Director of the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments.